

Men Gather at Morningside

In the fall of 2007, by popular demand, Morningside Presbyterian began two different opportunities for the men of our congregation to gather. Our hope is that one or both of these will appeal to every man at Morningside. One focuses on study – biblical, theological or ethical, and the other has been a social gathering.

The Men's Social Gathering meets on the fourth Sunday evening of each month at 5 p.m. Our next gathering will be at Manuel's Tavern on Sunday, May 25. Be sure to let Associate Pastor, Chris Henry chris.henry@students.ctsnet.edu know if you would like to be added to the e-mail list to receive information.

The study meeting is named 'Theology on Tap.' It will meet on Tuesday, May 13 at 7:00 p.m. at the home of Peter Cobb at 1150 St. Charles Place, 30306. Our topic will be "The Search for Balance: Faith, Work, and Life." In our increasingly crowded and busy lives, how do we find a place of equilibrium? We will discuss, from a theological perspective, the role of work in our lives, and also look to the Bible and Christian tradition for resources on how to live in ways that are both productive and fulfilling. All men are invited to an evening of good food and interesting dialogue on May 13. Please RSVP to Chris Henry by Monday, May 12.
