

MONTH AT A GLANCE

DEAR DISCIPLES,

The season of Lent is upon us. Where Advent is full of anticipation and hopefulness, Lent is often viewed as a real "downer." Who wants to contemplate our mortality or our own brokenness and sin? With all the pain and heartache in the world, why do we want to spend any more time confronting these realities? Don't we come to church to feel good? Perhaps Lent allows us to keep a foot in both spaces - reality and hope, death and resurrection, sin and grace, present and future.

And so as we begin our Lenten journey, we set our sights on this central symbol of our faith: the cross. Together we will ask the questions: Why do we need the cross? Why did Jesus have to die? And what about this symbol is meaningful to us as disciples of Jesus? This Lent, we'll be unpacking and exploring the meaning of the cross, not to dwell in sin or guilt but to uncover what is good, redemptive, and hopeful about the cross. We'll explore this through art, music, scripture and sermons because the mystery of the cross and its GOOD news comes in lots of different forms. In doing so, it lets us face the reality of our broken world and see the ways that God's redemption is unfolding right before us.

So my invitation to each of you in this season is to make a commitment to yourself and one another to journey together. Whether it's through regular worship or some of the special events coming this month - screen on the green, mission days, special holy week services - find a way to engage your faith and sit in the tension of the reality of this world and the hope we find in Christ.

WITH JOY IN THE JOURNEY, PASTOR KATIE

COVID UPDATE

Throughout the past two years, we have followed CDC guidance and navigated the pandemic wilderness with care for one another. Following the CDC's updated guidance this past week, we are prepared to relax our guidelines. Given that Fulton County is currently a low transmission community, our campus will be mask optional in all settings beginning Wednesday, March 2nd.

We will continue to closely monitor data and guidelines from the CDC as well as transmission rates for the county, which can be found here. In the case that we experience future surges due to other variants, we will follow the CDC's mask recommendations in times of high transmission. (continued on next page)

(Covid Update continued) As a community of faith, we remember that the body of Christ is composed of many members, each with unique circumstances, stories, and comfort levels. Many of you will be thrilled not to wear a mask; others may wish to continue to mask for added protection. The commitment we make to one another is to respect and honor each individual's decision without judgment or shame. We also continue to encourage you to love your neighbor by staying home if you are sick and isolating if you experience Covid.

If you have questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact Pastor Katie.

FAITH DEVELOPMENT "EXPERIENCE INFORMING BELIEF"

We hope that their contributions will invite you to reflect further on what the cross means to you and where you find hope amidst despair and life amidst death.

MARYVILLE COLLEGE CONCERT CHOIR "SING TOGETHER ALWAYS"

Sunday, March 13, 11:00 am in the Worship Service

MPC is thrilled to host the choir from Maryville College! After two years of not touring, Morningside is the 4th stop on their 5-stop tour of the southeast. The theme, according to MC Director of Choral Activities, Stacey Wilner, is "May We Sing Together, Always" – serendipitous, she added, given that this year's tour sees the annual event resurrected after being canceled in 2020 and 2021 due to COVID-19. The tour theme illustrates the students' dedication to the choral art and the sense of community it creates. Essentially, choral performance is about connecting to the human spirit, and this is more easily accomplished in person.

Created in honor of the late Atlanta arts enthusiast Nancy Walker Frampton, The Nancy Frampton Rising Artists Series is a new concert program highlighting the next generation of classical music stars. Beginning with three concerts in 2022, the series aims to bring exciting new talent to Atlanta audiences from a variety of performance genres. The inaugural season will feature three solo artists. Future seasons will likely include soloists, chamber groups, and instrumental ensembles. All concerts will take place at Morningside Presbyterian Church in Atlanta.

He focuses his varied career on sharing his voice and joy of singing with different latitudes and communities - from big theaters to intimate gatherings, to flash mobs in public spaces.

With a passion for Spanish chamber works, Bozón's repertoire includes Ramirez' La Misa Criolla, Falla's Siete Canciones Populares Españolas, Ginastera's Cantos del Tucumán and Cinco Canciones Populares Argentinas. A graduate of both the New England Conservatory of Music and the National University of Colombia Conservatory, Bozón won the 2021 Latin American and Iberian Art Song Challenge and was a two-time finalist in the Talents of the World, Inc. "POINT IN TIME" COUNT

Bill Humphries, ICM Board Chair & MPC Treasurer
The annual Point In Time count of unsheltered Atlantans took place Monday, January 24. This is a nationwide exercise to determine how federal funds will be allocated to fight homelessness. ICM is a major participant in the effort. I had the good fortune of serving on a team with ICM case worker Tracy Woodard (our team lead), community focused blog writer George Chidi, an attorney in non-profit practice working to help evicted people, and a very energetic 87-year old retired nurse. This is an eye-opening and depressing task, but some good was realized. Two of the folks my team interviewed were enthusiastic about having ICM assist them in finding housing. ICM has housed over 200 people in the past year. We have 75 document-ready individuals on the housing queue. Availability is the bottleneck. It is taking 6-9 months once in the queue. Mayor Andre Dickens has this firmly on his radar. Commitment by Morningside and Morningside members to ICM is robust. It's an imperative of our Matthew 25 faith.

Suzanne McPherson is taking over from Nancy Collins as our new ICM Shepherd! Nancy has spent over 10 years of dedication serving as MPC's ICM Shepherd, as well as Shepherd for Clifton Sanctuary at one time. We are deeply grateful. Contact Suzanne or co-shepherd Sophie Ryan if you would like to be on the ICM team!

PIGLET CHALLENGE!!!

Special to Presbyterian News Service

by Emily Enders Odom
Mission Engagement & Support

LOUISVILLE – Piglets are critically important toward creating a sustainable source of income for families in need all across the world, the Presbyterian Giving Catalog chooses to shine a spotlight on pigs through its annual Piglet Challenge. The ambitious goal of this year's challenge (beginning at 9 a.m. on Tuesday, March 1, and runs for 24 hours) is 100 piglets, doubling last year's goal of 50.

One repeat donor who needed no special convincing to make a gift of piglets is 9-year-old Nathaniel, who attends Morningside Presbyterian Church in Atlanta.

"We have a wonderful children's program at our church that offers ways for kids to engage in mission throughout the year," said Nathaniel's mother, Sarah Beth. "They make Valentine's Day cards for Meals on Wheels, go Christmas shopping for a local shelter, raise money for Thornwell Children's Home, host meals at another local shelter, and more," she continued. "I think Nathaniel's favorite might be the care packages they make for students – perhaps because they get to eat whatever is left over. It's wonderful to have mission as a foundational part of church for children and see how that can spur them to undertake service work of their own."

Because Nathaniel loves animals, the Presbyterian Giving Catalog is a perfect fit. "He loves when the Catalog comes in the mail," said Sarah Beth, "and he'll immediately set about circling the animals he'd like to donate to families. His main challenge is narrowing things down. His selection is often far bigger than his budget."

Nathaniel, who gave generously during last year's Piglet Challenge, hopes to double his efforts this National Pig Day even as the Presbyterian Giving Catalog doubles its goal. "He has already put in a call to his grandparents and plans to ask a few others," Sarah Beth said, "as well as contributing from his allowance."

To join Nathaniel and others in the National Piglet Challenge by making a $40 piglet gift, click here. "Pigs are awesome," Nathaniel said. "You can sell them to make money and that seemed like it could be a big help."
